Top London plastic surgeon is struck off

RANDY BOOB DOC ROMPED WITH PATIENTS IN HIS SURGERY

A TOP plastic surgeon who sent explicit messages to three female patients, then had sex with them, has been struck off.

Olivier Branford, 49 (right), showered the women with compliments after they came to him for boob jobs, before sleeping with them at his private London clinic.

The married dad-of-three also sent messages which included naked photos of himself and shared details of his sexual fantasies.

He had sex with one woman at the posh Cadogan Clinic in Chelsea, west London (above), after telling her she was "beautiful" and that he "loved her body".

Sturgeon escapes SNP ban

THE SNP's deputy leader has backed Humza Yousaf's decision not to suspend the whip from Nicola Sturgeon, saying it is in the interests of "natural justice" that she stays in the party.

Keith Brown said other cases where the party's MSPs had been suspended while allegations against them were being investigated involved "different circumstances".

Ms Sturgeon became the third figure in the SNP to be arrested by detectives in the ongoing probe into the party's finances.

Mr Brown said that he "certainly" agreed with Mr Yousaf's decision not to suspend his predecessor as the investigation is ongoing.

He said: "I think it's in the interest of natural justice, which is the principle which Hamza, the First Minister, is following."

Tough time for housing market

HOUSEBUILDER Bellway has said volumes are expected to dip this year and in 2024 as bosses cautioned over the potential further impact of cost-of-living pressures and higher interest rates.

But the FTSE 250 firm told shareholders it reported a "sustained improvement" in demand over the spring.

Bellway said it is "on track" to deliver around 11,000 homes over the year to July with an average selling price of around £300,000, compared with 11,198 in the previous year and a price of £314,399.

NOW FLOODS ARE RACIST!

RACISM IN ACTION: Pakistan flooding

NOW calling a catastrophe a "natural disaster" is RACIST.

Describing disasters as "natural" masks the "systemic inequalities in access to resources and power", the head of a disaster relief charity said.

Sanj Srikanthan, CEO of ShelterBox, said framing catastrophes like earthquakes, tsunamis, droughts and floods as natural undermines the need for preventative action.

His comments come on the anniversary of the devastating floods in Pakistan, which killed 1,700 people and 1.2 million livestock while affecting around 33 million people in total.

In an open letter to the UK, Mr Srikanthan said the term natural disaster is "misleading and harmful" and it "perpetuates a dangerous myth that nothing could have been done to prevent people being so badly affected".

He added: "When we frame disasters as natural, we fail to acknowledge the complex interplay between nature and the role of human actions and how they impact communities around the world."

"A disaster is not a natural occurrence but a result of systemic inequalities in access to resources and power."

"Where we live and how much money we have often determines our ability to recover. By framing these events as natural, we undermine the need for proactive measures to protect vulnerable communities."

"It masks the underlying social, economic, and political instability that make marginalised and disadvantaged communities disproportionately affected."

Profits keep booming at British Gas

THE parent firm of British Gas says profits will be "significantly higher" as its household energy business over the first half of 2023.

London-listed energy giant Centrica said the retail division, which includes British Gas, has been boosted by regulatory changes that allowed it to reclaim some losses from selling at capped prices.

It comes after a year which has seen British households swallow sharp increases in their energy bills.

The Government's current Energy Price Guarantee means annual energy costs have been limited to £2,500, but prices are set to fall in July as the cap from energy regulator Ofgem is reduced.

Centrica said the first five months of 2023 have been "strong overall" for the company, despite a reduction in wholesale energy prices.

It said group adjusted earnings per share are set to be at the "top end" of analyst expectations for the year.

Wage rises hit 20-year high

UK wages have risen at their fastest rate in 20 years, excluding the pandemic, raising expectations that UK interest rates will go up.

Regular pay excluding bonuses increased by 7.2% in the three months to April, although it still lags behind inflation - the rate at which prices rise.

The Bank of England has warned big pay rises are contributing the UK's still-high rates of inflation.

It has put up interest rates 12 times since 2021. Higher interest rates may be good for savers, but are driving up repayment costs for millions of mortgage holders in the UK.

And fears the Bank of England will raise interest rates higher than thought - from their current 4.5% to as high as 5.5% - have been causing turbulence in the mortgage market.

BLOODBATH IN NOTTINGHAM

HORROR: Police in Nottingham after the carnage

THREE people have been found dead in Nottingham in what police described as an "horrific and tragic incident".

A 31-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of murder after two people were found dead in the street in Ilkeston Road just after 4am on Tuesday.

A third man was found dead in Magdala Road, Nottinghamshire Police said.

Another three people are in hospital after someone tried to run them over in a van in Milton Street, in what police believe is a connected incident.

Linked

Chief Constable Kate Meynell said: "This is a horrific and tragic incident which has claimed the lives of three people."

"We believe these three incidents are all linked and we have a man in custody."

"This investigation is at its early stages and a team of detectives is working to establish exactly what has happened.

"We ask the public to be patient while inquiries continue."

"At this time, a number of roads in the city will remain closed as this investigation progresses."

Road closures in place on Tuesday morning in the city centre included Ilkeston Road, Milton Street, Maples Street and Woodborough Road, from the junction with Magdala Road into the city. The tram network was also disrupted with all services suspended on Nottingham Express Transit as the police investigation continued.

Local resident Glen Gretton said he was woken up at around 5am on Tuesday morning by the sounds of a series of police cars passing his home.

The 46-year-old delivery driver, who lives in a flat in Mansfield Road in Sherwood, said: "I heard a police car go past."

"It was driving extremely quickly, followed by another one, another one."

"They just kept coming so I knew something quite major... was happening somewhere around the city centre."

HALLETT OPENS COVID INQUIRY

THE UK COVID Inquiry will be the thorough investigation into the pandemic that the nation deserves, chairwoman Baroness Hallett vowed as she opened it.

Lady Hallett (left) intends to answer three key questions: was the UK properly prepared for the pandemic? Was the response appropriate? And can lessons be learned for the future? The retired Court of Appeal judge began the first day of evidence by welcoming the "dignified vigil" held by bereaved relatives outside the hearing.

Lady Hallett said she had an "ambitious" timetable for the inquiry, adding: "To conduct the kind of thorough investigation the people of the United Kingdom deserve takes time and a great deal of preparation. "If I am to achieve my aim of making timely recommendations that may save lives and reduce suffering in the future, I had no choice."

"I know that there are those who feel the inquiry has not sufficiently recognised their loss or listened to them in the way they feel appropriate."

"I hope they will understand when they see the results of the work we are doing that I am listening to them."

By JANE BROWN news@sundaysport.co.uk

GORGEOUS Jennifer Aniston says her body has taken a lot of hammer over the years.

The Friends actress, now 54, said she has beaten her body up over the past 15 years in order to look "Hollywood perfect", but it has taken its toll on her.

While talking up her new exercise-with-fitness brand Pvolve, she said now her mindset around health has shifted.

That means she no longer does exercises that are too repetitive.

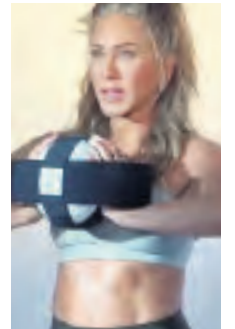

She said: "When you are in a mindset of, 'I need to do 45 minutes of cardio or I won't get a good workout', it's daunting."

"I believed it for so long. I just burnt out and broke my body."

Fans got a workout of their right arms thanks to Jen's latest exercise video which sees her flashing her midsection in a bra top and leggings to help promote her new collaboration with Pvolve.

One fan commented: "I've had quite a few wrist injuries from looking at pictures of the lovely Jennifer the last 15 years."

The Hollywood beauty started working with the Pvolve programme after hurting her back two years ago.

And she claims Pvolve helps "strengthen and restore" her body via its on-demand classes.

She added: "If I had known about it 20 years ago I would've saved so much pain."

Jilted trolley dolly's fake bomb threat

A VENGEFUL trolley dolly made a bomb threat to prevent her ex-boyfriend and his new lover – both crew members – from being able to fly together.

Daniela Carbone, 47, a flight attendant for Aerolineas Argentinas, was arrested at Ezeiza Airport in Buenos Aires after she allegedly used her daughter's mobile phone to send the threat using voice distortion software.

"Tell the captain that we planted three bombs in Miami. Stop fking with politics and check the plane because they are going to fly into a thousand pieces," a woman is heard saying.

All 270 passenger and 12 crew members were evacuated.

Carbone was arrested by airport aviation security police and charged with aggravated coercion, public intimidation and hindering a public service.

FANS of tits and fannies show Naked Attraction shit bricks when it was reported the programme had been AXED!

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The shit-stirring Mail on Sunday claimed over the weekend that the show, hosted by Anna Richardson, was being cut – along with several others – to save money at Channel Four.

The Mail reported Naked Attraction, Scared of the Dark, Rescue: Extreme Medics and Four Weddings were all being scrapped in what C4 staff were calling "a bloodbath".

The decision to axe these shows, The Mail reported, was due to a lack of funding.

But a C4 spokesperson has revealed this is NOT the case and they are in fact in a healthy financial position having last year achieved record-breaking revenues.

The spokesperson said while a decision was yet to be made on Scared of the Dark, Season One had performed extremely well and was likely to be given the go ahead for a new series at a later date.

Scared of the Dark, which was hosted by Danny Dyer, saw celebs including Chris Eubank and Scarlett Moffatt in the first season which aired in April.

Filmed

Elsewhere, new episodes of Naked Attraction – which is in its 11th season – have already been filmed and will air in 2024.

So, in a bid to reinforce how and why Naked Attraction is so popular with viewers, here are some of its best bits...

Dog shagger threat to kill shocked mum

A 20-YEAR-OLD man is behind bars after he threatened to kill his mother when she caught him balls-deep in the family dog.

Twisted Blake Reffett was hanging out the back of the hound and was about to reach the vinegar stroke when his mother came into the room and let out a soul-crushing scream.

After telling his mum "its not how it looks", Reffett turned nasty.

Reffett threatened his mother with a hammer after she saw him engaging in sexual acts with her dog on March 11, 2022.

His mother alleges he ran off after saying he would kill her and burn her body if she called the police in Elkhart, Indiana.

A police source said: "I don't know which is the worst. Fornicating with one of God's innocent creatures or threatening his momma in clear violation of the Lord's Commandments."

"All I done know is this fella's headed for hellfire. Yes siree."

Medics call for ban on vape ads

A MEDICAL research institute has called for a complete ban on e-cig advertising in the UK after a study found youngsters are susceptible to taking up vaping.

The George Institute carried out a global poll, which included children in Britain, and found four factors influenced the likelihood they might vape – exposure to advertising, past tobacco use, high incomes and friends or family who vape.

The poll of 4,007 young people aged 15 to 30 was carried out in the UK, India, China and Australia.

Overall, 1,589 people who'd never vaped were assessed for susceptibility to using e-cigarettes, with questions on curiosity, intentions to vape in the next 12 months and whether they would take an e-cig from a mate.

Some 55% in the UK were curious about vaping and 50% said they would use an e-cig if offered one.

I AM FRENCH... YOU ARE DESIRABLE AND SEXY

DOCTOR SHAGGER: Branford squirmed patients at his clinic

A TOP plastic surgeon, who sent explicit messages to three vulnerable patients then had sex with them, has been struck off.

Randy Olivier Branford, 49, showered the women with compliments after they came to him for boob jobs, before sleeping with them at his private clinic.

By MILES PLATTING
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The married father-of-three also sent messages which included naked photos of himself and shared details of his sexual fantasies.

He had sex with one woman at the posh Cadogan Clinic in Chelsea, west London, after telling her she was 'beautiful' and that he 'loved her body'.

Cambridge-educated Branford had sex with another woman – behind her husband's back – after saying her new breasts were 'perfect' and he wanted to 'oil them up' and put them on his Instagram page.

He had sex in 'multiple positions' with a third patient while she was still recovering from breast surgery, despite it not being clinically advisable.

Erased

French-born Branford admitted 14 of 18 charges against him when he appeared at a Medical Practitioners Tribunal misconduct hearing in November.

Two of the remaining four charges were later found to be proven.

The tribunal found Branford's fitness to practise had been impaired and, yesterday, it decided to erase him from the register.

During the earlier hearings, Branford was said to have encouraged 'emotional attachment' with all three women so he could have sexual relationships with them between 2019 and 2020.

One woman – Patient A – went to his clinic and told him she 'hated the way she looked' and her large breasts were causing her back and shoulder pain, and self-esteem issues.

He responded by sending her a WhatsApp message saying he could 'fix her and make her love her body'. They exchanged messages before a relationship.

He sent a second patient – Patient B – some sexually-explicit messages, telling her: "I am French, so sensuality is good. You are very desirable and sexy."

The pair acted out sexual fantasies and he sent her a naked selfie before they had sex at his clinic in October 2019.

Branford began seeing Patient C after a breast enlargement, having flirted during initial consultations which progressed to him liking pictures on her social media pages.

They later had sex in multiple positions at his clinic, despite him knowing it wasn't 'clinically advisable' for a patient to do so for at least two weeks following breast surgery.

Branford admitted to fostering an improper emotional relationship with Patients A and B but claimed he never encouraged an improper emotional attachment with Patient C, and she was just as eager to have sex with him.

He denied knowing the women were vulnerable due to Patient A's body dysmorphia, Patient B's low self-esteem and Patient C's anxiety.

When the accusations were made in 2020, Branford, lived with his doctor wife in a £2million home in Finsbury Park, north London.

ERASED: Branford

Cock 'n' balls force council to take action

A COUNCIL has vowed to clean up COCK 'N' BALLS graffiti sprayed on its roads in order to highlight potholes.

The genital spray paintings appeared on streets in Lymington, Hants, with most of the cocks pointing at gaping potholes in the tarmac.

Hampshire County Council said it will be sending an engineer to erase the "offensive" spray paintings.

The dick drawings have been noticed by residents in recent weeks, with some snapping photos to share on social media.

While some found them "vulgar", others called it "hilarious", and applauded the artists' attempt to get the council's attention over road conditions.

A Hampshire County Council spokesperson said: "Most graffiti is not usually considered to be a high priority or safety issue."

"But it is recognised some types can cause offence, so an engineer will be attending the site to erase it as soon as possible."

Exercising gets your pecker up

A NEW study suggests that men who perform just a few minutes of strenuous exercise are more likely to feel aroused than those who do not work out.

German researchers determined that men who carried out a three-minute strength test were far more responsive to sexual stimuli in the form of x-rated photos after physically exerting themselves.

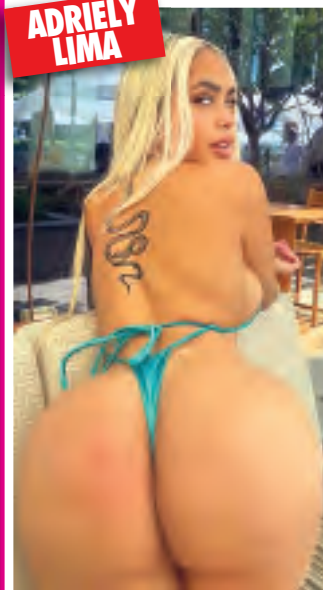

They maintain that just a few minutes of physical exercise is enough to jumpstart the nervous system that governs the body's response to arousal.

The men in the study who were asked to exert more energy in three minutes showed a higher heart rate and faster pupil dilation when presented with sexual images than people who exerted very little energy, suggesting that the after-effects of working out make a person more easily aroused.

When workplace pranks go T00 FAR...

COMPLAINTS: Worker Dale Wheatley

OFFICE BULLIES LEFT HUMAN HEADS ON MY DESK!

COMPLAINTS:
Worker Dale Wheatley

A WORKER at a body parts donation charity found a trio of severed HUMAN HEADS were dumped on his desk after he raised concerns over the way corpses were being handled.

Dale Wheatley, a delivery man for the Anatomical Gift Association of Illinois, a group of eight medical schools that "procures, prepares and preserves donations for medical and scientific study", explained the grisly retaliation for his complaints.

Mr Wheatley said that the facility was "deplorable". "It's in a shabby condition," he said. "If you're in there for more than five minutes, if you start walking around, you start to stick to the floor."

He said that organisations receiving the human bodies – donated after death – from the group have sent them back, complaining of “mould and rot and bugs”.

"There have been instances where I've pulled donors from our storing room out of the racks, and rats have chewed through the bottom of the bag, through the feet," he said.

The most shocking of the already morbid allegations made by Mr Wheatley is someone left a trio of severed heads at his desk.

"My boss walked by, I asked him why the heads were at my desk."

By KIT JACKSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

he said. "He said, 'They need to get back with their bodies so we can send them to cremation'. I said, 'I understand that... why are they at my desk?' and he said, 'I don't know, Dale, there's a lot of strange things happening'."

And he noted that the heads also had an "obnoxious smell".

William O'Connor, the AGA's executive vice president, vehemently denied the allegations made by Mr Wheatley.

He claimed the group receives bodies in various states, and said that part of Mr Wheatley's job is handling body parts, noting that the delivery driver manages the rack room where bodies are stored before they are distributed.

Mr Wheatley, working with employment attorney David Fish, has filed several complaints with local regulators in an attempt to try to improve conditions at the AGA.

Mr. Wheatley added: "I can't even sleep. Just the only thing I can think about, running it over and over in my head. I can't believe this is happening."

Cops crack down at dogging site

POLICE are cracking down on anti-social behaviour at one of Britain's most-notorious dogging hot spots.

Officers were in Barrow Wake near Bidlip, Glocs, as part of their efforts to stop anti-social behaviour at the beauty spot.

"We regularly receive reports of lewd acts, intimidation, littering and other aspects of anti-social behaviour," a police spokesperson said in a statement.

"We will continue to do all we can to allow everyone to safely enjoy the area."

In 2010, a fake brown tourist sign, pointing to an "official dogging area" at the beauty spot, was ripped down by angry residents.

It was put up on a local bypass and pointed towards the Barrow Wake viewpoint.

THE body parts of a Russian tourist who was filmed being eaten alive by a shark were recovered from inside the predator's guts after it was clubbed to death by beachgoers.

Vladimir Popov, 23, was caught on spine-chilling footage being attacked by a tiger shark last week and dragged underwater in Hurghada, Egypt, as he screamed for help.

The shark was later caught, and beachgoers beat it to death on the shore.

The shark has been dissected by specialists, who confirmed it was the one that ate Popov – after finding his remains in its guts.

Popov's father Yuri said the pair had "gone to the beach to relax" when all of a sudden, his son "was attacked by a shark".

Popov was in the water with his girlfriend, who escaped.

In terrifying video, Popov can be seen splashing about in the ocean before getting dragged under as horrified onlookers scream for help.

VICAR STOLE CASH FROM FOOD BANK TO PAY FOR SEX

CHARGED: James Gill

By BRAD CHADWICK
news.sundaysport.co.uk

THE boss of a food bank paid volunteers working at the charity to suck his old cock and masturbate him to completion.

James Gill, 81, who is a vicar, also stole more than £200,000 from the food bank, which distributes free grub to the needy.

The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation launched a probe into alleged theft at the food bank in Gallatin in May 2022 at the request of District Attorney General Ray Whitley.

Agents say Gill used more than a quarter of a million dollars of food bank money to make personal purchases, write cheques to himself and others, and transfer funds to other accounts using the name of a different non-profit organisation.

Sexual

Investigators also discovered Gill paid a food bank volunteer for sexual acts, according to a TBI statement.

It's believed he paid for the sex acts with food bank funds.

He has since been charged with theft, money laundering and patronising prostitution. Gill was booked into Sumner County Jail.

The pastor at Liberty Baptist Church, in Gallatin, launched the food bank as an arm of the church in May 2009.

Gill stepped down from his directorship in April 2022 due to "health issues."

Following his exit, First Baptist Church of Hendersonville took over running food bank operations under the name Feed Sumner Food Bank.

A source said: "When have you ever heard such a thing? A pastor indulging in such wickedness? It's done ungodly, that's what it is. Yessir."

Teacher axed over teen sex

A TEACHER who allegedly had sex with a teen pupil has been suspended from Moor End Academy in Huddersfield pending an investigation by West Yorkshire Police.

The force confirmed an unnamed woman had been arrested and released on bail.

Although not confirmed by cops, a source said she is accused of having sex with a 15-year-old student and that the investigation is being led by a Kirklees police safeguarding unit.

A spokesperson for South Pennine Academies said: "Following allegations against a member of staff at Moor End Academy, a teacher was suspended pending an investigation and the matter has been referred to the police."

SON RAN OVER MUM, 80, AFTER STABBING

A MAN has been accused of murdering his 82-year-old mother by repeatedly slamming her head into the ground, stabbing her with a butter knife and running her over with her own truck.

Daniel Uhlman later told cops that he "just felt like killing her".

Uhlman, 53 (below), from Westborough in Massachusetts, lured his mum, Nancy, to a Holiday Inn hotel where he was living.

Prosecutors said Uhlman invited Nancy to the hotel and instructed her to park her pickup truck in the back so they could "smoke cigarettes".

He then yanked her out of the truck and proceeded to slam her face and head against the pavement 20 times.

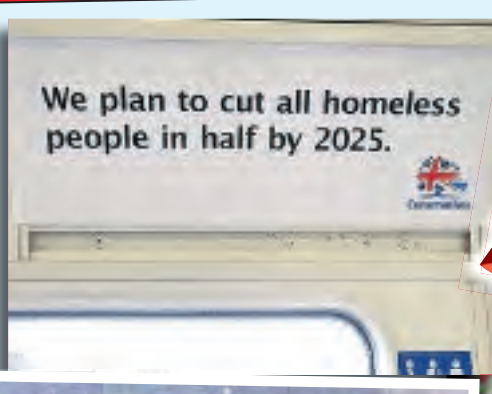

Uhlman then produced a butter knife from his pocket and tried to stab her with it.

He then walked into the hotel lobby "with blood on his hands", and told staff to call the police.

He faces charges including armed assault and battery with a dangerous weapon.

IT'S said that on June 14, many years ago, Greek scholar Archimedes found that an object's volume could be accurately measured by being submerged in water – while HE was in a bath!

Eager to share his excitement over this discovery, Archimedes jumped out of the bathtub and yelled: "Eureka, eureka!" as he ran through the streets of Syracuse.

And from that event, thousands of years ago, PR people invented International Bath Day as a way to plug soaps and bubble baths.

We prefer to use it as an excuse to print lots of snaps of naked ladies soaping their big boobs down while luxuriating in the tub.

Here are FIVE pages of them, you lucky suds!

I HAVE never tried a threesome but it's top of my sexual bucket list.

I watch threesome porn a lot – it's incredibly hot and just thinking about it makes me horny.

My ideal scenario would be with a guy and another girl – the best of both worlds!

I'd love to do it with the guy lying on his back, and one of us girls bouncing on his cock and the other sitting on his face. That way, us girls can kiss and caress each other's boobs.

Another good position is when the two women give each other oral with a 69-er and the guy penetrates the girl on top from behind.

Also very naughty is a kind of oral daisy chain where everyone is getting a good licking!

There are endless possibilities – it really does blows my mind.

I often find myself daydreaming while I'm at work about a new threesome position.

If only my colleagues knew what I was thinking about – maybe they'd like to join in!

Warne stars land in A&E after romp!

THE stars of the upcoming Shane Warne mini-series found themselves in hospital after a clumsy moment during a SEX SCENE.

The Australian sportsman died of a heart attack aged 52 in March 2021 while on holiday in Thailand.

Announced last year, the two-part drama stars Alex Williams and tells the story of the late cricketer's life.

Now the actress who plays Warne's ex-wife, Simone Callahan, has detailed how her and Alex (above) had a slight mishap on set.

Marny Kennedy said: "We were going down a corridor and we were meant to push into the bedroom and land on the bed, but we both completely missed it!"

"We ended up sitting in the emergency room together – him with a bandage around his head, and me with my wrist strapped."

"It was just Alex and I, with our bleached hair and fully still in wardrobe, sitting there surrounded by all these elderly residents!"

A ROLL in the hay might keep you from tossing and turning at night.

That's the takeaway from a new survey presented at the SLEEP 2023 annual meeting in Indianapolis.

In the survey, 53 adults were questioned about their sleep habits.

The questions covered issues like sleep quality, sex and orgasms and the use of sleep medications.

"Little scientific data exists around the impact of sex and orgasm on sleep quality," lead author Dr Douglas Kirsch, medical director at Atrium Health in Charlotte, North Carolina, said.

The study authors noted that sex is often portrayed in the media as conducive to a good night's rest, but the link hasn't been examined by scientists.

The survey found that 66% of the participants reported using sleep medication at some point to get better rest.

Perv mailman broke in and w*nked while wearing lady's panties

BAILED:
Holden

A DEPRAVED postie was caught after he filmed himself doing a sex act while wearing undies belonging to a woman whose home he broke into.

Glen Holden, 59, got into the home knowing that its occupants were on holiday.

A court heard that he entered the property in the early hours of October 6, 2021.

Footage found on his phone after it was seized by police appeared to show

By COLIN HURST

him walking around the home half-naked and later masturbating while wearing the occupant's white underwear he'd taken from her bedroom.

At Bournemouth Crown Court, prosecutor Holly Fagan said the footage was unearthed by police officers investigating two later burglaries of a similar nature in Milborne Port, Somerset – the same area as where the 2021 incident occurred, and Sherborne, Dorset, in June and July 2022.

Outlining the case, she said: "The footage was recorded at around 2am. It shows Mr Holden walking around the house while naked from the waist down."

"It shows him go into the bedroom of the house, climbing onto the bed with his backside facing the camera. At that point, he was wearing a T-shirt with lacy white women's knickers on and socks."

Masturbate

"He then seems to kneel on the bed and masturbate. He then suddenly stopped and got off the bed."

A second clip filmed shortly after showed Holden touching items on a dressing table in the bedroom, including makeup brushes and some face cream.

Ms Hogan noted "rhythmic panting noises" were heard in the video before Holden stopped and appeared to have rubbed semen off his fingers onto the victim's brushes.

The victim was shown stills from the footage, and confirmed it was her bedroom and white knickers.

She was unaware of him breaking into her home or how he did it, but was left shocked when informed by police officers.

She discovered the same white knickers in her drawer were "not clean" and disposed of

'He appeared to have rubbed semen off his fingers onto the victim's makeup brushes' them.

In a statement, she said: "I would not have known that Mr Holden would have been in my home. I find the whole incident very disturbing as we do not know how he got into our home."

"We've known Glen as the local postman for some time and all our interactions have always been pleasant and professional. I find it a breach of the trust you have in your postman to commit such a violation of our privacy."

Further footage found on Holden's mobile phone saw him secretly film the victim as he delivered her parcel and embraced each other with a hug.

Holden, who was a postman for 32 years in the Sherborne area, created a number of sexualised photographic collages, with one image featuring his semen in a face cream tub with the caption: "I can truly say I have cum all over this woman's face."

Holden, previously of Sherborne but now living in Bracknell, Berks, previously pleaded guilty to burglary dwelling with intent to cause damage when he appeared at Poole Magistrates' Court. In September 2022, Holden was jailed for 16 months for similar behaviour and those dwelling burglaries in September 2022, but was released from HMP Guy's March on April 21 on licence.

The case was adjourned for sentencing on June 29. Holden was released on bail.

NICKED:
Gomes is arrested

Big-boobs influencer nicked for robbery

AN influencer known for flaunting her big BOOBS on social media has been arrested for allegedly committing multiple robberies with her boyfriend.

Karina Laino Gomes, who boasts more than 63,000 followers on TikTok, and her lover Edmilson Souza da Silva, were taken into custody by police in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

The pair were charged with robbing people en route to make deposits or payments at the ATMs of banks.

Cops claim Gomes's role was to get the victims to drop their guard before they were then robbed at gunpoint.

A getaway driver would park in front of each bank, ready to ferry the gang to safety following a job.

Gomes and the gang had been monitored by police for weeks, amid a spike in their brazen crimes.

The pair have since admitted to the robberies and named four accomplices, who authorities are on the hunt for.

They will remain in police custody until the investigation is complete.

Gomes also had 50,000 followers on Instagram before the social media account was suspended following her arrest.

CHAINSAW LOON BOILS HIS MISSUS IN A PRESSURE COOKER!

HELD:
Manoj
Sahni

A MANIAC killed his live-in lover, chopped her up with a chainsaw and then boiled the bits in a PRESSURE COOKER when they began to smell.

Manoj Sahni, 56, lived with his partner Saraswati Vaidya, 36, on the 7th floor of a block of flats in Bombay, India.

Suspicious arose when a foul smell started seeping from Manoj's apartment, prompting concerned neighbours to report it to the police.

Remains

On their arrival, cops discovered the fragmented remains of the woman inside the property, leading to Manoj's immediate arrest.

During questioning, he admitted that the deceased was his live-in partner, Saraswati.

Police report that an altercation between Manoj and Saraswati, stemming from a disagreement involving another person, quickly escalated and led to the horror.

In a fit of rage, Manoj killed his partner.

Subsequently, he went to the market and purchased a chainsaw commonly used for cutting trees.

Upon returning to their residence he then dismembered the dead woman's body "into multiple pieces".

It was discovered that he boiled some of the body parts in a pressure cooker, possibly in an attempt to try and destroy evidence and also eliminate any unpleasant odours.

The dismembered body parts have been sent for post-mortem examination, and the forensic team has been called to the scene to gather more evidence.

Police spokesman Jayant Bajbale said Manoj was nicked and is being questioned.

NAKED MALE SUNBATHER RISKS BURNING TACO BELL-END

A MAN has been arrested after being caught sunbathing naked – outside a town centre restaurant!

Members of the public alerted the police after the bare-arsed sun-worshipper was seen laying out on the street outside the Taco Bell eatery in Lowestoft, Suffolk.

Police arrived at the scene and arrested the man before taking him to Great Yarmouth police station.

A Lowestoft police spokesman said: "So, yes... this happened. He has been slathered with aftersun and will be attending the court at later today."

Flesh-eating bug after leg bitten in row

A MAN nearly lost his leg when he contracted a nasty flesh-eating bacterial infection, after being bitten by a FAMILY MEMBER during a fight.

Donnie Adams, 52 (above), of Tampa Bay, Florida, developed a small, painful bump after a relative sunk their teeth into his right thigh as he tried to break up a tussle at a family gathering.

Assuming it was just a harmless lesion, he took himself to get a tetanus shot and a course of antibiotics.

But just three days later, Adams could barely walk so he went back to Florida Northside Hospital and was immediately rushed into emergency surgery.

About 70% of the tissue in his thigh had to be removed and he needed follow-up surgery to remove the remaining infected flesh.

The flesh-eating bacteria, known as necrotising fasciitis, kills tissue around muscles and nerves.

Traffic delay down to pigs in the road!

DOZENS of pigs ran loose on a motorway after the lorry transporting them tipped over.

The truck, which was carrying 50 hogs, overturned while traveling north on Interstate 694 near Little Canada, a city roughly 10 miles north of St Paul, Minnesota.

The pigs scattered from the vehicle and were caught on CCTV trotting through the morning rush-hour traffic on both sides of the highway.

On the northbound side of the road, the hogs took over all four lanes of traffic, forcing drivers to travel along the hard shoulder and causing a mile-long backup until officials managed to shut down the motorway for several hours.

It took officers from four police departments nearly four hours to corral the swines, several of which were sadly injured.

Unfortunately, 10 were killed in the crash.

COURT ON CAMERA: Porn beauty Abella (above centre) cheers on her beloved Miami Heat players and (right) in viral TikTok video

By ALICIA KOOPER news@sundaysport.co.uk

IF you know ANYTHING about the game of basketball, the following may make some sense...

The Miami Heat fell to the Denver Nuggets in Game 4 of the NBA Finals on Friday night.

But even if you're not into glorified netball, a face in the crowd WOULD be of interest to you.

During the national broadcast of Game 4 between the Denver Nuggets and Miami Heat, adult film star Abella Danger was spotted courtside, and a screenshot of her in the same frame as Nikola Jokic has since gone viral.

Abella, 27, was wearing red leather pants and a tiny white top while cheering for Jimmy Butler and company.

She is a Miami native and has always made her love for the Heat evident.

But she's more famous for filthy PORN!

Accommodating

Abella is one of the most popular adult film stars in the world and famed for her accommodating BUMHOLE!

In one X-rated scene, the curvaceous beauty shoves several ounces of BUTTER up her nipsy before a huge-cocked hunk bums her right up the arse, with the dairy product providing ample lubrication.

Abella has appeared in more than one thousand credited scenes since starting in the porn game in 2014.

In 2017, she won an AVN Award for Best Double Penetration Scene in which Markus Dupree and Mick Blue both penetrated her vagina and bumhole at the same time – before climaxing their hot SPUNK over her pretty face.

Prior to attending the game, Abella shared a clip showing off her outfit, leaving TikTok followers breathless.

She captioned the vid: "TikTok ready for game 4, lets go Miami! Who ya'll got?!"

Dear Kelly,

I'VE been happily married to my missus for five years. Our sex life has been fine up to now but I've just discovered a shocking secret she's been keeping from me.

She suddenly told me last week that she's bisexual and wants us to have a threesome with another woman.

Now I know most blokes would give up a left bollock to be in my position, but I'm not sure I want to go down this road again.

You see, I've tried it before – and although it was a great experience, it ended up backfiring on me.

My ex-girlfriend ended up taking a fancy to the other bird and dumped me to move in with her.

I'm worried that the same thing could happen again if I agree to fulfilling my wife's fantasy.

Any advice?

PK, Cardiff

Kelly says...

YEAH, video it, so if you do end up getting dumped again, at least you've got something to put in the wank bank.

Dear Kelly,

I WAS out with Scooby (my spaniel) in the park the other week when I passed this blonde of about 22 walking her terrier.

Scooby got a bit randy and started sniffing her dog's arse, so we had a good laugh about it and then started a friendly chat about our naughty pets.

Then, out of the blue, she said she hadn't had a man for ages and asked me back to hers for a shag.

I was well up for it and couldn't get back to her place quick enough, where we headed for the bedroom.

But the trouble is I couldn't come because her dog was sat there watching from the end of the bed.

I like her a lot and want to carry on seeing her, but now I fear she thinks I'm impotent.

What can I do?

LF, Berkshire

Kelly says...

CLOSE your eyes and go for it doggy-style.

I was willing star in my hubby's fantasy sex vid

Dear Kelly,

MY husband filmed me having sex with him and two fellas we pulled in a nightclub last week.

It's been his fantasy for a while and I agreed to make it a reality for his 40th birthday.

I'm 38, blonde and busty with a good body, so I had no problem finding a couple of willing lads in their early twenties.

We took them back to our place and my husband filmed as I sucked these lads off.

They then took it in turns to fk me before my hubby gave me a good seeing to.

The thing is, these lads now want to see me behind my hubby's back.

I'm tempted. Any advice.

JE, Lancs

Kelly says...

GO for it. Your husband had his fun, now you can have some too.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY MCGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Telly addict hubby loves to copy sex antics on shows

Dear Kelly,

MY boyfriend is getting me down – he watches way too much telly and what he sees on the box he always likes to put into practice in real life.

Take this for example. There was a game show on where, if you won, you got a chance of either cash or opening a box.

And when it was finished, he insisted on asking me a couple of questions.

They were so hard I got them all wrong wrong, but he still said I had won and that I could have the money or open the box.

And then he offered me ONE POUND. Confused and not really understanding what it was all about, I said I'd open the box.

The next thing I knew, he had me naked in the bedroom and there I was pulling my pussy lips wide open so he could see all the way into my love box.

And, boy, did he look! He said it was his prize and he stared into my tunnel of lust for what seemed like ages before getting down on all fours and licking the length of my slit.

After wriggling his tongue in and out of my slippery hole for a while, he concentrated on my hard little clit – bringing me to a shuddering orgasm.

Thrusting

Then it was his turn to claim the rest of his prize and he was soon on top of me and thrusting his fat, trembling dick into me until I felt him orgasm in waves of wild passion.

Another time, there was this play on the telly about a woman who made it with another lady, so he had me looking for a woman to have lesbo sex with.

I never did find one because he wanted a really fat one like he had seen on the TV and, sorry, fat people just don't turn me on.

Now I wouldn't have minded having a go at a fit babe like one of the typical Midweek Sport glamour babes, that would have got my juices flowing.

But no, he insisted it had to be a fat bird and we ended up having a massive argument about it.

Well, this sort of thing goes on all the time and I'm getting fed up with it.

I mean, it can be a lot of fun sometimes but at other times his daft demands get on my tits.

Have you got any suggestions?
HT, Essex

Kelly says...

SUGGEST he next chooses a hunk of a bloke off the telly and he'll soon go off the idea.

Dear Kelly,

I'VE been a happily married man for the last 15 years – until the firm I work for employed an 18-year-old girl apprentice.

We work quite closely together on admin and out of the blue she asked if I was married.

Bizarrely, I told her, "No".

Then later on that same day, she followed it up with an invite to her flat that she'd been sharing with a mate – who moved out last week.

She didn't fancy an evening at home alone, so she suggested we grab a takeaway after work and head off to her place.

As I drove us there, her hand slipped between my legs, which just sent my dick rigid.

She toyed with it until we got to her place, at which point she dragged my pants down and gave me the most amazing wank and blowjob I'd had in years.

It got me up for more and after shagging her, I went home and did the wife, too.

But all the time I was feeling terribly guilty about how I'd treated both of them.

What shall I do?

GF, West Midlands

Kelly says...

YOU know you shouldn't have gone anywhere near this girl. Drop the randy teen.

I had horny threesome with wife and best pal

Dear Kelly,

I HAD a threesome with my missus and her best pal the other week!

They had been on a girls' night out to see a male stripper group and when they got back to our place they were a bit tipsy – but VERY horny!

The pair of them told me all about the big dicks they had been slobbering over all night and then started ripping my clothes off.

But I wasn't going to complain, as my missus sucked me off while her sexy friend hitched up my wife's short skirt and started licking her out.

It wasn't long before I shot my load down her throat, while her pal brought her to a shuddering orgasm.

Throbbing

They then lay me down on the floor and the pair of them got to work bringing my cock back to hardness.

My wife carefully lowered herself onto my throbbing nine-incher and her mate placed herself carefully behind, so she could lick my balls and finger my missus up the arse as she rode me.

I ended up giving both of them a good piping all night and I must have shot my load five times.

But now my wife wants to have another threesome, but this time with me and another BLOKE.

How do I tell her I'm not interested?
VD, Dorset

Kelly says...

WHY not try it, just to see if you like it or not.

BABES

#HOT'N'HORNY

NAUGHTY Nickie Ann has a very kinky secret – she likes shagging in her CAR! The 32C babe said she loves pulling over at the side of the road for a fiddle with her fella's gear stick.

Nickie said: "One time, I was going away for a dirty weekend with my man."

"I have no idea why, but I started playing with him while he was driving – which he absolutely loved!"

"After a few minutes of that, I just had to jump on top of him."

"He pulled over at the side of the road and we went at it – it was truly amazing."

"But my favourite position is definitely doggy style."

"It's the best and it really hits the spot every time."

#HOT'N'HORNY

BUSTY Eva Notty is a VERY Notty girl – the glamour model and porn star loves soaking up the sun. Which comes as no big surprise as she hails from the scorching state of Arizona, in the US. We managed to catch up with her, rubbing sun oil on her 34G boobs. Eva said: "If you fancy rubbing it in, I'd be happy for you to help." "I love having stuff rubbed into my boobs – if you know what I mean!" In case you don't know what she means, she means spunk. From out of your cock.

ANTONELLA'S boobs bounced to a DD cup while she was still at high school – but they'd not finished growing.

She explained: "All of a sudden in my early thirties my boobs went through another huge growth spurt.

"It almost seemed like every week I was getting bigger...I had gained a little weight, but just about EVERYTHING was going straight to my girls.

"People had always stared at me, but then it just got out of hand..."

WHERE REAL BABES SNAP THEMSELVES!

THIS is it...the only newspaper feature where REAL BABES show their boobs!

Self-shooting topless pics is a craze that's sweeping the country – but you don't need a swanky new smartphone to enjoy 'em – as we'll be printing the pick of the snaps EVERY week!

SEND US YOUR SELF-SHOTS!
selfshot@sundaysport.co.uk

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sunday-sport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

ROBYN ARNOLD

SUFFOLK sweetie Robyn Arnold would stop any bloke in their tracks – and for traffic warden Tim Atkinson, there's no girl quite like her.

Robyn's perfectly pert 34C bust was picked out by Tim, 34, also from Ipswich and he says she's got the best pair he's ever seen.

He said: "Robyn's rack is top notch and I'd love a new snap of her to add to my collection – I keep all of her pics!"

DEBRA TURPIN

DELIGHTFUL Debra Turpin is shop worker Dean Langley's number one pick.

The Liverpool babe's 36B bust has been on Dean's mind ever since he first clamped eyes on them many years ago.

The Brummie, 54, said: "She is my dream girl. I think about her all the time."

SAMANTHA JESSUP

GLAMOUR legend Samantha Jessup has been anatomically blessed with a fine pair and Tom Linton begged us for an ogle at 'em.

Tom, 58, from Liverpool, is an IT analyst and his job means he's away from home a lot - but he keeps a stash of Brighton babe Samantha's 32C topless snaps on hand in case he gets horny.

He said: "Scouse girls are some of the best but when I'm away it can get lonely so I always stock up on snaps of Samantha."

"I take a stash of her pictures with me when I work away but I could do with a fresh new photo."

Ascot taps turned on

ASCOT clerk of the course Chris Stickels is preparing for unsettled weather ahead of the start of the five-day Royal meeting next week.

The track has been bereft of any significant rainfall for the last few weeks and although isolated thunderstorms are forecast at the Berkshire venue until Tuesday morning, temperatures are set to remain high in the coming days.

Stickels is struggling to find much clarity from the meteorological forecasts ahead of the meeting, which starts next Tuesday.

He said: "We are very happy with where we are. The track is in lovely condition. The grass coverage is lovely and thick and it is a nice racing surface."

"At the moment we are just maintaining it so we can apply more water if we need to closer to the event. The forecast is tricky because we may get thunderstorms later today, then drier weather, then maybe a slightly trickier week next week."

"There are varying scenarios at the moment. Different models are giving us different information, but it will not be a settled week next week."

"It makes things more complicated when the forecast isn't settled."

Stickels and his team are pulling out all the stops to ensure they are not caught out by the vagaries of the weather. He added: "There will be daily going updates. GoingStick readings will be taken tomorrow, then on Friday, then every day from Sunday."

ALL THE TOP TIPS FOR TODAY'S RACING

Truthful can get his story straight

TRUTHFUL is expected to double her tally for William Haggas in the Jewson Wigan EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Haydock.

With a total prize fund of £40,000 up for grabs, this is a valuable contest for a race of its type and it has attracted a couple of previous winners.

Truthful, a daughter of Sea The Stars, was a 120,000 guineas purchase for Highclere Thoroughbred Racing and made her racecourse debut at Salisbury in the middle of May.

Improve

While the winning margin was only a head and the runner-up Mantog has been well beaten since, Truthful displayed a willing attitude and plenty of talent to make a successful start to her career and she can be expected to improve significantly.

Shagpyle, a Frankel half-sister to King George hero Pyledriver, looked a similarly smart prospect when winning on her first start at Ascot, but there is a suspicion she may prefer softer ground than she is likely to encounter on Merseyside, which may give Ribblesdale Stakes entrant Truthful the edge.

Regal Fanfare catches the eye in the Jewson Widnes Fillies' Handicap.

Like most of Sir Michael Stoute's runners, the speedy daughter of Intello made a big leap forward from her first run to her second, with a sixth-placed finish on her Kempton debut in November bettered when finding only one too good on her April comeback at Lingfield.

She was a shade disappointing when well held in third at Nottingham on her third outing, but given conditions were extremely testing at Colwick Park, that run is easily forgiven.

The upside is she enters the handicap sphere with what appears a very workable mark of 73 and back on a sounder surface, she could prove very well treated and is hard to beat.

Greek Order can make it back-to-back wins in the Jewson Chorley Handicap.

Placed in each of his three races in novice company, the Kingman colt successfully stepped into handicap company at Sandown last month with a half-length verdict from a very fair perch of 80.

He has been raised 5lb, but there may well be more to come from this lightly-raced three-year-old and the booking of champion jockey William Buick is clearly a positive.

Anglo Saxson is difficult to oppose as he bids for a fifth win at Yarmouth in the curtain-raising Free Tips Daily On attheraces.com Apprentice Handicap.

Form

The six-year-old has done most of his racing at the Norfolk venue and four wins and two thirds from 10 course outings is a decent record for those efforts.

He has won off a mark of 70 in the past and has very much rediscovered his form in the past 12 months after joining Patrick Owens, scoring off 51 and 55 last season and 59 on his recent reappearance.

Anglo Saxson had a bit in hand when scoring three weeks ago and a 3lb hike to a rating of 62 looks far from insurmountable given his past record. It would be no surprise to see him score again.

Scoops Ahoy ought to make it third time lucky in the Lookers Audi EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes at Hamilton after twice finishing second at Beverley.

The best race over jumps at Newton Abbot is the Peninsula Finance PLC Handicap Chase, in which Light N Strike is taken to give weight and a beating to his rivals.

The Emma Lavelle hope produced a career-best effort when scoring by six lengths on fast ground at Warwick three weeks ago and he could defy an 8lb rise with conditions a gain expected to be quick.

City the greatest Brit team of all time

FORMER BOSS ROYLE MAKES THEM No 1

FORMER Manchester City boss Joe Royle says Pep Guardiola's current side is "one of, if not the best" English football has seen.

City completed the treble on Saturday night with victory over Inter Milan in the Champions League final and Royle has no doubts where Guardiola's class of 2023 ranks in the all-time list.

Royle, 74, who led City from the third tier to the Premier League after back-to-back promotions in 1999 and 2000, said: "There's no doubt about it. They're one of, if not the best English club side there has been."

"They've got to be talked of as one of them. They can play off the cuff or play in various systems and they can counter very quickly."

"They've got world-class individuals, they've got the team ethic and they've got a very, very strong squad, covering every position."

Manchester United became the first English side to win the treble – league title, FA Cup and Champions League – under Sir Alex Ferguson in 1999, the same year City dropped into the third tier for the first time in their history.

The debate will now rage among both clubs' fans over which is the greater achievement and Royle said: "A treble is a treble."

"They're both equally matched when compared to their rivals in their era and both City and United fans will rightfully claim that their side's treble was the best."

By JOHN ANTHONY

Under Royle, City ended their one season in the old Second Division, now League One, in thrilling fashion by beating Gillingham on penalties in the play-off final at Wembley.

Gillingham had led 2-0 in the final minute of normal time before last-gasp goals from City pair Kevin Horlock and Paul Dickov took the tie to extra-time and then penalties, with Royle's side winning the shoot-out 3-1.

"It was an unforgettable way to win promotion," Royle said.

"And when you consider how far City have come since then, there's no secret."

"The current ownership, with their financial support, have changed City from a side that did sink to the third tier."

"We got back into the Premier League, but we certainly didn't have the funding that the side does today in order for us to stay there and we went straight back down again."

"But it's been mostly on the up since then. It can never be too quick for a club to get in the Premier League."

"The current side, look where they've gone now. They've completed the treble and deservedly so. You can never get there too quickly."

Guardiola's City have been crowned English champions in five of the last six seasons, but, after finally securing the Champions League Royle, is not sure if they will now dominate Europe in a similar manner.

"Football is a season-by-season game isn't it?" he added. "Certainly anyone who finishes ahead of them next season, in England or Europe, is going to be doing very well."

Celebrated

"The money has been spent very well. They've generally bought well. It's one thing having money and another thing using it wisely and City have been very good at that."

City celebrated their treble in a rain-soaked Manchester on Monday night.

Sleep-deprived winger Jack Grealish admits he had "the best day and night".

Even a lightning storm could not dampen spirits as Pep Guardiola and his squad paraded their newly-acquired European Cup alongside the Premier League trophy and FA Cup.

City returned from Istanbul on Sunday afternoon and it has been one long party – with celebrations set to continue for a while longer as Grealish was overheard to ask striker Erling Haaland: "Are we having it?" while on their one-mile tour around the city centre.

Haaland's response was to empty a bottle of champagne over the £100million signing, who told a large crowd assembled in St Peter's Square: "For the past 24 hours I've had the best day and night. To be fair I don't think I've had any sleep."

The players had arrived for their parade via Metrolink tram from the Etihad Stadium but the weather delayed proceedings somewhat.

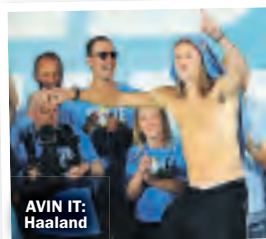

Supporters had expected to be let into the fanzone in front of the stage at 5pm but due to the threat of lighting storms that was pushed back by 90 minutes.

Rain started falling shortly after 6pm but it did not deter the fans who came out in their droves to cheer on City's squad and manager Guardiola, all wearing matching 'Treble winners' T-shirts.

Halfway around those now-drenched T-shirts started to be dispensed with as City's 52-goal striker Haaland threw his into the crowd and, with the rest of the squad, arrived on stage 45 minutes later than expected still topless.

"We had to be the best parade with this rain, otherwise it is not Manchester," Guardiola said to the delight of the waiting crowd.

ALL CHANGE AT EVERTON

EVERTON have begun overhauling their board by announcing a trio of departures led by chief executive Denise Barrett-Baxendale, with the future of chairman Bill Kenwright set to be addressed today.

Barrett-Baxendale, chief finance and strategy officer Grant Ingles and non-executive director Graeme Sharp have left their roles a fortnight after the club escaped relegation from the Premier League on the final day of the season.

Everton will announce their interim replacements, along with a decision on the future of Kenwright, this week.

Along with Kenwright, the three directors had been prevented from attending matches at Goodison Park since mid-January because of fan opposition that entailed "threats to safety and security".

"The outgoing directors have worked tirelessly over recent months to assist with the preparation for a transition to a new board," an Everton statement read.

"The club is very appreciative of this generous accommodation, which is both characteristic of them and entirely in the spirit of the best values of our club."

Everton have cumulative losses of more than £430million and the exit of the directors was seen as inevitable with American investors MSP Sports Capital poised to buy into the club.

"We have all been fully committed during our time here and are disappointed to have made the decision to leave Everton," a statement from the three directors read.

"We have worked tirelessly alongside our chairman in what has been a challenging period to deliver some of the most significant projects in Everton's history – projects that will safeguard and sustain the commercial future of the club for generations to come.

Member

"It has been an honour and a privilege to serve as directors. We would like to thank everyone who has supported us during our time here. We wish the club we have loved to serve every success in the future."

Weekend Sport American investors MSP Sports Capital are poised to buy into the club, taking a reported 25 per cent stake, and they are expected to insist on significant representation on the board with potentially two new members.

Kenwright's retention, for now, is linked to regulations which state the club has to have at least one sitting member of the board.

The fact his future will be addressed over the next couple of days would suggest the proposed new investment is being pushed through and could be finalised later this week.

HEATHER READY FOR WIMBLEDON

HEATHER Watson says it is difficult not to feel "hard done by" after a year of struggle on the tour following her career-best Wimbledon performance last season.

The 31-year-old produced the best grand slam display of her singles career in 2022 when she made the second week for the first time, eventually going out in the fourth round.

But it counted for nothing in the rankings as the WTA and ATP stripped the tournament of points in response to the decision to ban Russian and Belarusians following Russia's illegal invasion of Ukraine.

In normal circumstances Watson would have received 240 points, which would have seen her ranking soar and then seen her gain automatic entry into other tournaments, but the reality saw her scratching around on the second-tier ITF Tour and she has not played in a grand slam since.

"It wasn't Wimbledon's fault, it wasn't their choice but yeah, I do feel a little bit hard done by," Watson, who beat Jule Niemeier in the first round at the Nottingham Open, said.

"It's not their fault, but I wish I had the points, it would have been a very different story, but hey-ho.

"I feel like that after Wimbledon I went from an all-time high in my career and then not being awarded any points there really affected my tournament entries, being main draw in grand slams, I probably would have been main draw for the rest of the year and it just had a domino effect.

"I couldn't get into WTA tournaments so I was playing ITFs and I was winning them all but the points are rubbish so it doesn't help my ranking at all.

"You are playing top 100 girls in the ITF and I feel like dropping down to play was good for matches and you were playing players who aren't the same level, but the strength in depth in women's tennis has grown so much. Rankings-wise it has been a real rubbish year but I have actually won more matches."

Her win over Niemeier in Nottingham will do little to boost her current ranking of 195, which will leave her needing a wild card if she is to get direct entry into this year's event at SW19.

Asked whether she will have to qualify, she said: "I don't know, I have applied for a wild card so I hope I get one."

Fellow Brit Sonay Kartal is out, though, after a three-set loss to Pole Magdalena Frech.

The British number eight fought back after losing the first set, but Frech came on strong in the decider to ease through 6-3 5-7 6-2.

Top seed and world number eight Maria Sakkari beat Xiyu Wang 6-2 7-6 (6).

There were a host of home players in action yesterday, with new British number one Katie Boulter, who has taken over from Emma Raducanu, takes on compatriot Emily Appleton, with Harriet Dart, Katie Swan and Jodie Burrage also due on court.

Joelinton attacked by racists

NEWCASTLE midfielder Joelinton has revealed he received racist messages following last month's Premier League defeat to Arsenal.

The 26-year-old spoke about the subject while on international duty with Brazil, saying "many things need to be changed".

Newcastle were beaten 2-0 by the Gunners at St James' Park on May 7.

"It's an important moment to speak about racism," Joelinton told a press conference. "We have been talking about it for a long time."

"Still, many things need to be changed. We talk about a combat against racism but we didn't have much of a change."

"This racism is not something happening now, but for a long time."

"And, in the 21st century, we still see things like that. It's hard to accept and believe that we are evolving when things like that still happen."

Asked if he had suffered racist abuse, the player replied: "Not on the pitch, no."

"But after that match against Arsenal playing at home, I have received some messages with racist insults. But it's gone, it didn't affect me."

Joelinton, who is in line to win his first cap for his country in upcoming friendlies against Guinea and Senegal, received a message of support from his club.

A post on Newcastle's official Twitter account read: "There is no room for racism. Anywhere. We're with you, Joe."

Sheikh waits for United

SHEIKH Jassim is still waiting to hear if his fifth and final offer for Man United has been accepted, according to sources close to the Qatari.

Reports in Qatar had indicated that the Sheikh's bid – which is for 100 per cent of the club – had seen off the bid from Ineos founder Sir Jim Ratcliffe.

However, the Sheikh Jassim camp described those reports as pure speculation and say they remain in a 'holding pattern'.

They expect the next step will be for the United board to meet and consider both bids.

The Qataris are eager to get the deal done with the summer transfer window about to kick into gear.

WALES IS ALL THAT COUNTS!

Ramsey insists the Dragons and not his club woes are firing him this weekend

By PAUL THOMAS

AARON Ramsey insists his focus is fully on Wales' Euro 2024 ambitions amid growing uncertainty over his Nice future.

Ramsey has triggered a one-year contract extension at the French club after playing more than 30 games for the Ligue 1 club this season.

But it has been reported in the French media that the 32-year-old midfielder wants a longer deal to stay at Nice and that may not be forthcoming.

"I'm not sure what my future is at the moment," Ramsey said ahead of Wales' Euro 2024 double-header against Armenia and Turkey.

"The most important thing is for me to focus on these games."

"We will find out in a few weeks' time, when everything has settled down a bit."

"My full focus is on Friday (against Armenia). I'll have to keep you guys (the press) waiting a bit longer."

Ramsey says his family, who have stayed in Cardiff while he has played in France and travelled to and from Wales, will be instrumental in the decision over his playing future.

It has led to speculation that Ramsey could return to Cardiff this summer, the Sky Bet Championship club where he began his career before moving to Arsenal in 2008 and spending 11 seasons in north London.

That particular rumour mill went into overdrive last week when Cardiff chairman Mehmet Dalman told supporters to expect an "exciting" signing this summer.

Ramsey said: "There's always rumours going around, isn't there? There is always that bit of noise."

"This season has been a success for me personally, I played a lot of games and some good football. The only thing missing was a few goals, but that will come again."

"The most challenging thing is being away from my family. That's the situation I find myself in."

"I've been away from my family and seeing the kids growing up, missing out, it's always difficult. Difficult for anyone to go through, I imagine."

Points

"Whatever we do going forward, we will be reunited and back together."

Wales host Armenia in Cardiff on Friday before heading to Turkey three days later, having made a positive start to Euro 2024 qualifying.

Rob Page's side picked up four points from their opening two games in March, drawing away to World Cup semi-finalists Croatia before beating Latvia at home.

Ramsey said: "This is a massive camp for us. The World Cup was a huge disappointment for us, and it was important to get off to a good start."

"To bounce back straightaway in those two games sets us up nicely."

"It's huge now to back that up against Armenia. It's a game we need to win and all our attention is on that."

Ramsey missed Nice's last four games of the season with a calf problem.

But he is confident of playing roles against both Armenia and Turkey, saying: "The last couple of weeks I did not play, but before that I had a good run of games."

"I got myself in good shape so there's not too much to be worried about."

"I've had a good season and we had a bit of a European run as well. I'm 100 per cent ready to play to help us win."

Page has told top-flight clubs to make a move for "Premier League player" Daniel James.

The Wales winger's club career

FOOTY IS BACK THIS WEEKEND

STILL BREATHING FIRE: Ramsey is determined to shine for Wales remains uncertain following Leeds' relegation to the Championship.

James spent last season on loan with Fulham but has now returned to managerless Leeds and the second tier, where he shone at Swansea to earn a 2019 move to Manchester United.

Page said: "I do think DJ is a Premier League player and he could easily play there again."

"If I'm a Premier League manager and I find out he's available, personally I'd take him."

"I'm bound to say that because I'm his Welsh manager, but for me he always poses a threat."

"He still has things to work on but with the pace he's got it is a brave team that plays a high line against him."

James cost Leeds £25million in joining from Manchester United in August 2021.

The 25-year-old struggled for game-time at Fulham, making only five Premier League starts among 23 appearances in all competitions and scoring three goals.

James has often reserved his best performances for a Wales shirt and started 34 consecutive competitive games before being benched for the World Cup defeat to Iran in November.

"He has taken one for the team in recent months because I've asked him to play a different role," Page said.

Effective

"He likes playing wide left and the way we play now suits us because he gives us the width on the left."

"He's that option in behind and when you've got a tool like that in your armoury it really is effective."

"In the Premier League, and at international level, he poses a threat. It was a frustrating few months for him when I played him at centre-forward with Gareth (Bale)."

"Now we've changed and he is back out in his natural position."

CELTIC TO BATTLE LEEDS FOR BREN

CELTIC will have to act fast to get Brendan Rodgers – before Leeds steal him.

The former Hoops boss has been strongly linked with a return to Glasgow despite plenty of the fanbase still fuming at the way he left for Leicester.

Dermot Desmond has reportedly jettisoned in for talks as Celtic try to find a successor to Ange Postecoglou.

Rodgers is being heavily linked with Leeds who have just dropped into the Championship. He is in a battle with former Norwich supremo Daniel Farke for the Elland Road hotseat.

But Rodgers is likely to opt for a return to Celtic Park if that option is on the table.

The Northern Irishman won seven trophies in his first spell at the club before departing suddenly for Leicester in February 2019.

Mbappe scramble after he snubs PSG

KYLIAN Mbappe could be heading to the Premier League after telling PSG he wants to leave.

Now the French giants have a tough decision to make.

Do they sell Mbappe now – or let him walk away for FREE at the end of the next season. PSG have very deep pockets but would surely not allow a player they signed for £160million to go for nothing.

Real Madrid are thought to be at the head of the queue for the 24-year-old but there are plenty of Premier League sides with deep pockets.

Manchester United's hopeful new owner Sheikh Jassim could try to make the Frenchman a marquee signing to quell any worries among Red Devils fans. He would have the finances to get the deal across the line.

Chelsea are in dire need of a new talisman, while Newcastle could afford Mbappe if they could persuade him to make the move to St James's Park.
